

MANITOWOC COUNTY COURTHOUSE

Wireless Internet Access

Manitowoc County provides Internet access in the Manitowoc County Courthouse as a service to attorneys and the general public through an open wireless network. The wireless network is named "MCPUBLIC."

YOUR USE OF THIS SERVICE IS AT YOUR OWN RISK.

Manitowoc County does not provide technical support, URL filtering, or virus protection for network users. It does not guarantee that the network will be available at all times. It does not guarantee that you will be able to access any particular file, resource, or site using the network. It does not guarantee the privacy of any network communication.

You must provide your own wireless device if you wish to use the network. You are solely responsible for protecting your equipment and files from any kind of damage.

You are responsible for bringing any materials that you need to court. You should not rely on the network as means of making materials available in court.

Your use of the network is subject to certain Conditions and Disclaimers. A complete copy of the Conditions and Disclaimers is available in the Clerk of Court's office. Your use of the network constitutes acceptance of those Conditions and Disclaimers.
