Meeting:

Chair Judge Mark Rohrer called meeting to order at 4:49. Attendance sheet circulated. Supervisor James Falkowski moved to approve the minutes of the February 2, 2022 Council meeting. Cindy Oswald seconded the motion. Motion passed unanimously after voice vote.

Judge Rohrer noted that Chief Paul Granger who spoke briefly.

Don Sweet, Treatment Court and Diversion Coordinator reported on the drug court. Two team members resigned. Will be making a presentation for the Wisconsin Comprehensive Community Services meeting. Our program is doing well. Continuing to review the program phases regarding potential changes. Eleven participants. Four applicants are in the review for admission stage. Took time to explain the Comprehensive Community Services program. Lori Fure noted that our partnership of CCS and Drug Court is being held up as a state model. County Executive asked if the supervision of both programs by same individual was unique and a factor in the success. Ms. Fure indicated that it was a unique arrangement.

Pre-trial Services Committee is not ready to provide a report.

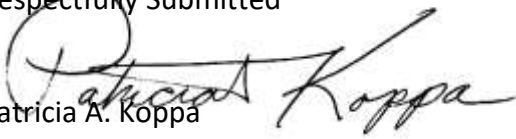

Regarding participating in the Wisconsin CJCC, meetings are by zoom. The next being on March 9. Judge Rohrer will try to sign in, others are encouraged to do so if interested.

Ms. Slattery noted that the League of Women Voters will be holding an event on March 24 on the mental health court report. Judge Rohrer noted the judges met on the topic and learned more about the implementation and requirements needed. Attorney Larson noted that all services and partnerships must be in place to avoid causing more harm. Like drug court, measure of program success are reoffending and services failure can directly lead back to offending behaviors.

The next Council meeting date is May 4, 2022. However this is during the Treatment Court conference. After discussion, meeting moved to June 1, still at 4:45. The Executive Committee will continue to meet by videoconference; next meeting is March 21 @ 12:15.

Motion to adjourn made by Attorney LaBre, seconded by Lynn Zigmunt. Passed unanimously adjourning at 5:09p .m.
