Pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 806.19(3), the undersigned hereby certifies receipt from the Judgment Debtor of a deposit of the Total Judgment and Costs shown above, representing payment in full of the judgment entered and docketed described above, plus the satisfaction fee prescribed by Wis. Stat. § 814.61(5). The clerk of circuit court shall immediately note the date and amount of the deposit on the judgment and lien docket.

The Judgment Debtor shall immediately give written notice to the Judgment Creditor and to the Judgment Creditor's attorney of record, personally or by registered mail to the last known post-office address, stating the amount, date, and purpose of the deposit, and that the deposit is held by the clerk of circuit court subject to the order of the Judgment Creditor.

Ten days after giving the notice, the clerk of circuit court shall, upon filing of proof of service, satisfy the judgment of record, unless the trial court otherwise orders. The Judgment Creditor's acceptance of the sum deposited has the same legal consequences as payment made directly by the Judgment Debtor.
