Need a Ride?

The Aging and Disability Resource Center of the Lakeshore, in partnership with Maritime Metro Transport, is responsible for the planning, coordination, and management of community-based transportation services and programs for older and disabled persons.

One of our most rewarding programs is our Volunteer Rural Transportation Program. We encourage you to visit our website, www.manitowoc.org, or call (920)686-6977, to learn more about our Volunteer Rural Transportation Program. Anyone over the age of 60 or anyone who is over 18 and disabled qualifies for these transportation services. In fact, over 1,000 trips a year are taken in our vans.

How do I schedule my ride?

To make your reservation, call the One-Stop-Shop Monday-Friday, 8:00am-4:00pm, at (920)686-6977. All trip reservations must be made 2-3 business days in advance. Same day service is not provided. Reservations are accepted, and encouraged, up to 14 days in advance. Our staff will assist you with specifics of pick-up and return times, and door-to-door service, when you call to set up your reservation.

Cancellations

In the event of a cancellation, we request that you contact the One-Stop-Shop ASAP at (920)686-6977. Please try to give at least two hours notice to all cancellations.
