Introduction of Supervisor Dan Heilman and Mary Wallace (League of Women’s Voter)

Public comment: Mary Wallace (League of Women’s Voter): Stated she has reached out to Lori Fure with Human Services and understands Human Services is not in a position to take on a Mental Health Court. Questions posed by Mary Wallace: 1) Does CJCC see a benefit for Mental Health Court 2) If so, the League is willing to assist with research to be able to look at options in Manitowoc.

Discussion:

Ann Larson: At this time, she does not see this happening. At the National Conference for Mental Health Court, she learned that if there is not enough money to sustain the program, then a Court should not be started; due the lack of resources available currently, it would not be advisable for Manitowoc County to start a mental health court; if resources were available, then yes, a Court could be explored.

Judge Rohr: Mental Health Court could be damaging if funds are not available; given diagnosis, programming, and the fact that funds are needed for longer period of time

Bob Ziegelbauer: At this time, there is a shortage of providers available

Thomas Denk: Inquired about Crisis Interventions Partners/Programs (CIP) and agreed to bring additional information to CJCC in regards to how other counties are utilizing CIP. Law Enforcement currently has CIT.
